Defendant Harry Williamson respectfully moves the court for a 60-day extension of time to obtain representation and counsel for the above referenced case.

Since the COURT OF COMMON PLEAS CUYAHOGA COUNTY, OHIO ruled that the Defendant Harry Williamson's prior retained Attorney Brian D. Bardwell allegedly held a potential conflict of interest.

It has become a challenge to obtain additional counsel due to the complexity of this case. In addition, to meeting the financial burden of interviewing counsel and the demanding cost associated with such an action.
